Itinerary

Day 1 - Individual arrival in Passau

Start your cycling and boating holiday on the Danube with a city stroll through the enchanting old town of Passau. The world's largest church organ in Passau Cathedral welcomes you with a powerful voice. The embarkation takes place from 3 p. m. on board the MS Primadonna. On board you will be welcomed by the crew with a welcome drink.

Day 2 - Schlögen-Linz, approx. 55 km

The first stage of the Danube cycle path leads through the famous „Schlögenger Schlinge“ to Wilhering to the Church of the Thousand Angels. Only a few more kilometres separate you from Linz, where the MS Primadonna awaits you.

Day 3 - Tulln-Vienna, approx. 36-52 km

The magnificent former monastery Klosterneuburg is worth a stop during the Danube cycle tour. Via the recreational area of Vienna, the Danube Island, you reach the centre of Vienna. In the evening you can choose between 2 city tours in the capital of Austria, one tour is organised by bike (approx. 20 km) and with a tour guide, the other one by bus.

Day 4 - Komarom-Esztergom/Stúrovo, approx. 56 km

This morning you will set off on a new stage of the Passau-Budapest-Passau cycle tour. On your bicycle tour you cycle along the car-free dam trail, partly directly on the Danube from Komarom through small, dreamy places via Moca to Esztergom. Then you reach the Giselabrücke. Cross it to get to Sturovo. The MS Primadonna awaits you when you arrive in Sturovo.

Day 5 - Budapest incl. city tour, approx. 22 km

Once in Budapest you start a city tour in the largest city of Hungary (approx. 3 hours). In the afternoon you pedal again and start your next bicycle tour along the pedestrian zone to Margaret Island, the beautiful recreation area in the middle of the city. A short stop at the foot of the castle district is highly recommended.

Day 6 - Bratislava with city tour, cycling tour Bratislava-Devin-Bratislava, approx. 33 km

After breakfast you will get to know Bratislava, the city of 3 countries, on a guided city tour (approx. 1 hour).

After a short stay on board the MS Primadonna you can expect a round trip from Bratislava via Devin back to Bratislava. The Danube cycle path leads from the Devin Fortress to the imposing Hof Palace with one of the most magnificent baroque gardens in Europe. Your bike trip in Austria takes you through a small piece of untouched nature - and shortly afterwards you are back in the pulsating metropolis of Bratislava.

Day 7 - Wachau/Krems-Pöchlarn, approx. 48 km

Your last bike tour along the Danube cycle path takes you to the idyllic wine-growing region of Wachau. Enjoy your journey past the wild Strudengau and the gentle Nibelungengau and the wine-growing towns of Weißenkirchen and Spitz until the magnificent, baroque Benedictine monastery of Melk appears on the horizon.

Day 8 - Individual departure from Passau

The disembarkation from the MS Primadonna takes place at about 9 o'clock. Individual departure home.
