Itinerary

Day 1 - Individual arrival in Kiel

Arrival to Kiel, the state capital of Schleswig-Holstein. You can spend the rest of the day on your own, visiting the largest shipyards in Europe, the lifeline of the port city. Example of hotel: Hotel Berliner Hof in Kiel

Day 2 - Kiel–Rendsburg, approx. 50 km

Your first cycling stage from Kiel to Rendsburg begins today. You cycle along the Fördeweg, pass the jetties of the large cruise and Baltic Sea ferries and the Tirpitzhafen harbour to the locks in Holtenau. Further on the probably most interesting stretch, the canal way, up to Rendsburg. On your way you will encounter historical buildings of the old Eider Canal again and again. Example of hotel: Hotel Rendsburg

Day 3 - Rendsburg–Friedrichstadt, approx. 54 km

Leave the Kiel Canal and cycle via Christiansholm and Bergenhusen (Storchendorf) to Friedrichstadt. Your bike tour takes you through the unique natural landscape around the Hohnersee and the river lowland Sorge. This natural landscape is home of many animal species, such as white storks and otters. Example of hotel: Pension Marktblick in Friedrichstadt

Day 4 - Friedrichstadt–Büsum, approx. 50 km

After breakfast you will get back into the saddle and cycle along the Eider towards Tönning with its historic cutter harbour. You cross the Kattinger Watt up to the Eidersperrwerk. On the dyke and the North Sea cycle path you will now reach the health resort of Büsum. Example of hotel: Tum Stüümann in Büsum

Day 5 - Büsum–Brunsbüttel, approx. 57-62 km

Today you start your Cycling tour in Büsum. Cycle through the wide Dithmarscher landscape with its dikes and the Wadden Sea to Brunsbüttel. Example of hotel: Schleusenhotel in Brunsbüttel

Day 6 - Brunsbüttel–Rendsburg, approx. 68 km

Your Day begins at the locks, the mouth of the Kiel Canal. The canal is used annually by thousands of ships and is therefore the most used artificial waterway in the world. On the North-Baltic-Canal-Cycle-Path you cycle along the canal via Hochdonn to Rendsburg. Example of hotel: Hotel Rendsburg

Day 7 - Rendsburg–Kiel, approx. 57 km

Today you go on your last bike stage to Kiel. Along the south side you cycle along the charming canal path to the state capital Kiel. Your way leads past impressive high bridges and past the locks in Holtenau. Example of hotel: Hotel Berliner Hof in Kiel

Day 8 - Individual departure or extra nights

After breakfast your individual journey home will take place or you can enjoy your stay in Kiel with additional nights.
